Dear Miss

I have received your suggestion that the priority numbers assigned to certain subjects be included on the front of the files pertaining to them. After consideration, it has been decided the work involved in keeping this information current is not warranted because of the changes which frequently take place regarding these designations.

The interest and thoughtfulness you displayed in submitting your idea to me are indeed appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE Continued:

Domestic Intelligence Division advised it felt the work involved in keeping this data up to date at all times was not warranted since these priorities change so frequently due to changes in positions on part of subjects or lack of substantial activity by subjects. If change should inadvertently not be made and reliance were placed on stamped notation, there is much more chance of error. Reliance on notation rather than a file review would not be a good practice. The card index maintained on these subjects uses different colors for different priorities as an aid to persons working with these cases. Tickler cards for periodic reports as needed in these cases are used by supervisors as key as to when reports are due. No good reason exists for taking proposed action. Training Division recommends idea not be approved.

SUBJECT: SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS OF INDIVIDUALS
YOUNG WORKERS LIBERATION LEAGUE

- Encl

PURPOSE

To obtain approval of the attached SAC Letter instructing the field to identify members of the Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL) and to institute security investigations of YWLL officers and leading activists.

BACKGROUND

The YWLL was formed as a successor organization to the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America in Chicago, Illinois, on 2/7-9/70. Headquartered at 29 West 15th Street, New York City, and with chapters being organized throughout the country, the YWLL's aims and purposes are to educate youth in the revolutionary ideology of Marx and Lenin and recruit the more promising disciples into the Communist Party (CP). The major task of this developing organization will be to fight the draft, end militarization on campus and instruct all young people who oppose the war, including GIs, on the socialist alternatives. The expressed views of this new CP youth organization will, therefore, be to foment dissent among youth to oppose military service which is the country's foremost weapon in its defense. SAC Letter 70-21 dated 4/21/70 instructed the field initiate an investigation of captioned organization and to report formation of YWLL chapters.

OBSERVATIONS

In view of the YWLL's expressed aims and purposes and the close connection of its members with militant New Left activities, efforts should be made to identify all members of the YWLL and investigations should be instituted on all of its officers and leading activists. Those individuals falling within the necessary criteria will be included on the Security Index. The YWLL is the newly formed youth group of the CP, USA. However, since these will be investigations of youthful revolutionaries, closely following

COORDINATION WITH PASSPORT OFFICE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

With the Director's approval we have in the past on a quarterly basis made available to Mr. Robert M. Johnson, Deputy Director and General Counsel, Passport Office, Department of State a list of individuals included in Priority I of the Security Index. Priority I includes hard-core national and state basic revolutionary organization leaders and leaders of other subversive organizations and unorganized groups who have indicated a propensity for violence or have received special training in sabotage, espionage, or guerrilla warfare. This list, which is prepared by the Automatic Data Processing Unit, is very useful as the Department of State alerts the Bureau to contemplated travel abroad of subversives.

Mr. Johnson has previously been made to understand that the list is to be handled in the strictest confidence by him at all times in his office safe and is to serve only as an alert list upon which State can take no action but must contact us for reports.

ACTION:

1) If approved, the enclosed Priority I list, prepared as of 8/18/70, should be forwarded to Mr. Johnson by courier.

2) If approved, subsequent quarterly reports for Mr. Johnson will be handled accordingly.

Current MOI chapter on security investigations is extremely lengthy (110 pages) and cumbersome. This section, which governs a substantial part of our security work, including investigations of Marxist-Leninist organizations and front groups, New Left organizations, and Security Index subjects, has not been overhauled for more than 15 years, and it is seriously in need of streamlining, updating, and reorganizing.

For the past several months, as time has permitted, this entire section has been reviewed, streamlined, and reorganized by Supervisor John E. Keating of the Research Section who has worked closely with knowledgeable supervisors throughout the Division in connection with this project. This project has now been completed and there is attached a revised Section 37 which it is believed is far better organized and will prove more useful and more readable both to Agents in the field and to our supervisory staff. Not only is the revised section much shorter than the current version (less than half in length), but it has also been organized with a view to providing maximum convenience in locating subject matter and in combining related topics which are not scattered throughout this section.

The following specific changes have been made in connection with this project:

1. All of the pertinent material relating to applicable statutes has been combined in the initial section of the chapter. Heretofore, pertinent statutes had been scattered throughout the section. At the same time, we have considerably streamlined the statutory information especially to eliminate portions of the Smith Act of 1940 and the Internal Security Act of 1950 which have recently been declared unconstitutional. Based on recent court decisions declaring these statutes invalid, we have also deleted references to the National Defense Education Act of 1950, the National Science Foundation Act of 1950, and the statute concerning the right to strike against the Government.

Memorandum to Mr. W. C. Sullivan
RE: SECTION 87
MANUAL OF INSTRUCTIONS (MOI)
SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS

2. We have substantially streamlined the current provisions (37C) relating to investigations and reports on the Communist Party, USA, and other Marxist-Leninist groups to eliminate redundancies of verbiage and repetition.

3. We have broken down current Section STD (relating to security investigations of individuals) into a number of more meaningful and clearly defined subsections. Currently, STD runs to some 80 pages and is most unwieldy and complicated. In our rewritten chapter we have broken this lengthy section down into such categories as policies and objectives, procedures, techniques, administrative procedures, and dissemination.

4. Throughout the entire chapter we have used streamlined wording, eliminated repetition and verbiage, and sought to organize the material under well-defined and meaningful subheadings.

5. A table of contents has been prepared for the entire chapter. Currently the chapter contains only a table of contents with regard to S7D.

This rewritten version of Section 57 has been reviewed and approved by the Internal Security Section which handles the bulk of investigations involved. Pertinent portions have also been reviewed and cleared by the Nationalities Intelligence Section (Cuban matters) and the Racial Intelligence Section (communist infiltration of racial matters and black nationalist investigations). No policy changes have been made in revised version with exception of those enumerated above.

ACTION:

That attached rewritten version of Section 87 be approved. Arrangements will be made so that when this Manual change is issued, an S.C Letter will be prepared advising the field of the major changes. At the same time, necessary changes in the FBI Handbook will be separately submitted.

OF INDIVIDUALS

Reurairtel and LHM, dated 8/5/70, captioned "Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) Forum, Atlanta, Georgia, 7/24-26/70."

Information on pages five and six of referenced communication shows names of individuals who attended the general Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) meeting. Several of those named are not on the Security Index. Accordingly, recipient offices are to check office files with regard to those individuals in your respective divisions. Where an investigation has not been conducted or where a case exists and subject is not on the Security Index, appropriate investigation is to be conducted and results furnished the Bureau together with an evaluation as to inclusion of the individual's name on the Security Index. Advise the Bureau under individual case captions concerning action being taken by your office in each instance. 76

SUBJECT: SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS
OF INDIVIDUALS - Letter 1

PURPOSE

To obtain approval of the attached SAC Letter reminding the field of the need to obtain photographs of subjects in security investigations.

BACKGROUND

Section 87D, Manual of Instructions, requires that reasonable efforts be made during a security investigation to obtain a photograph of the subject. With increasing frequency, the field is closing cases without giving sufficient attention to the need for photograph.

OBSERVATIONS

A photograph of a security subject is an integral part of each investigation and should be obtained except in those rare instances where usual sources are exhausted and further efforts would not be feasible. Instances where photographs have prevented "mis-idents" are numerous. It is rarely safe to assume that an informant has identified information furnished by him with the subject of the investigation unless all identifying data, including a photograph, has been considered. Additionally, photographs (which are required of Security Index subjects) should be available at the time subjects are recommended for the Security Index, thus obviating the need to retain cases in pending status for further investigation. No manual changes will be necessary.

RECOMMENDATION

That the attached SAC Letter reiterating the rule for photographs be approved.

SUBJECT: SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS OF INDIVIDUALSPURPOSE:

To obtain approval of attached airtel to all offices, advising moratorium on certain aspects of security investigations is rescinded.

BACKGROUND:

In 2/69, as a matter of temporary expediency, the Executives Conference approved a moratorium on certain Security Matter - Communist investigations and periodic report writing in Priority II and Priority III Security Index cases. This moratorium was later extended to 1/1/71.

Memorandum 10/29/70 from the Executives Conference to Mr. Tolson recommended that the moratorium on report writing and investigations in Priority II and Priority III Security Index cases be lifted. The recommendation was approved by the Director.

There are approximately 10,690 individuals currently included in Priority II and Priority III of the Security Index. Virtually no investigation has been conducted regarding approximately 6,924 of these individuals since the imposition of the moratorium in February, 1969. Many of these individuals have changed residence and/or employment and their whereabouts are unknown. To fulfill our current responsibilities, we should know where they are.

If the moratorium is rescinded, the field will be required to reopen approximately 2215 Priority II cases for reports and approximately 4709 Priority III cases to verify residence and employment and submission of letterhead memoranda where information in field office files warrants.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

RE: SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS OF INDIVIDUALS

Regarding rescheduling of opening aspects of cases is rescheduled.

To avoid an immediate impact on the field, opening of these cases should be staggered with a proportionate number opened each month to insure all are reopened by 6/30/71.

Attached is airtel to all offices, advising of rescinding of moratorium in line with the above.

RECOMMENDATION:

That attached airtel be approved and sent.

Memorandum

TO : Mr.
FROM : The Executives Conference

DATE: 10/29/70

SUBJECT: EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE - 10/29/70

PROPOSED INTENSIFICATION OF CERTAIN INVESTIGATIONS IN THE SECURITY FIELD

Messrs. Those in attendance at the Conference today included

The Conference examined the question of whether the current situation demands intensification of certain security-type investigations. In particular, reference was made to (1) lifting of the existing moratorium on report writing and investigation in Priority II and Priority III, Security Index cases, (2) the intensification and expansion of investigations of black, white and ethnic group extremists and (3) development of selected contacts of individuals who could be targeted against Soviet intelligence personnel (DESECO Program). These items are being individually considered below.

Lifting of existing moratorium on report writing and investigation in Priority II and Priority III, Security Index cases.

There are approximately 10,690 individuals currently included in Priority II and Priority III of the Security Index. Virtually no investigation has been conducted regarding approximately 6,924 of these individuals since the imposition of the moratorium in February, 1969. Many of these individuals have changed residence and/or employment and their whereabouts are unknown. To fulfill our current responsibilities, we should know where they are.

RE: EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE - 10/29/70

If the moratorium is rescinded, the field will be required to reopen approximately 2,215 Priority II cases for reports and approximately 4,709 Priority III cases to verify residence and employment. Opening of these cases would be staggered with a proportionate number opened each month to insure all are reopened by June 30, 1971.

Black Student Unions and similar groups on college campuses.

In 1967, black students began forming their own groups to project their demands, many of which indicate a commitment to black nationalism. These groups are autonomous and have a strong sense of common purpose. The Black Panther Party has made open efforts to organize the Black Student Unions nationally and other black extremist groups have used these organizations to project their extremism and separatism.

Campus disorders involving black students increased 23 per cent in the 1969-70 school year over the previous year indicating that these groups represent a real potential for violence and disruption. In the past, we have opened cases on these organizations following evidence of black extremist activities; however, in view of the vast increase in violence on college campuses, it is felt that every Black Student Union and similar group, regardless of their past or present involvement in disorders, should be the subject of a discreet preliminary inquiry through established sources and informants to determine background, aims and purposes, leaders and key activists. It is estimated that this would cause the field to open approximately 4,000 cases involving organizations and the key activists and leaders connected therewith.

At the end of the 1969-70 academic year, the various factions of the SDS, excluding the Weatherman faction, which has become an organization in its own right, consisted of a membership of approximately 2,500 individuals. In addition to the SDS groups, there are about 252 totally independent groups on college campuses which are pro-communist New Left-type and are followers of the SDS ideology. It is estimated that the membership of these organizations consists of about 4,000 members. At the present time, we are conducting investigations of all of these organizations but have not, in the past, initiated investigations of the individual members of such organizations, with the exception of the key activists and individuals who are known to be violence prone.

RE: EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE - 10/29/70

Major campuses across the nation have been completely disrupted by violent demonstrations, bombings, arsons and other terroristic acts perpetrated by these organizations. It is, therefore, proposed that cases be opened on all individuals belonging to such organizations to determine whether they have a propensity for violence. If this proposal were implemented, it is estimated that the field would be required to open approximately 6,500 new cases.

Puerto Rican Students Union and the En La Brecha (in the breach)

The Puerto Rican Students Union is based in New York and is active on campuses in New York City and near by New Jersey. It embraces the extremist ideology of the New Left and calls for the independence of Puerto Rico.

En La Brecha is a Cleveland-based Puerto Rican youth organization with weapons in its headquarters and members have been associated with New Left individuals. In view of the extremist nature of these two organizations, all members should be identified and investigated. This would result in the opening of approximately 200 cases.

Jewish Defense League (JDL)

The JDL is an anti-New Left and black nationalism organization, the violent nature of which has been illustrated by its direction of attacks against diplomatic establishments in the New York area and alleged implication in bombings of offices of foreign countries. Members have participated in an attempted highjacking of an international flight. This militant group of Jewish youth claims a national membership of 8,000 with chapters in approximately 20 of the major metropolitan areas of the country. We presently have under investigation those JDL members identified as being in leadership positions, participants in acts of violence or active in organizational affairs. In view of the violence-prone nature of the organization, it is felt that investigations of individuals should also include the lower level membership exclusive of those who appear as members only because of financial assistance they afford. This would result in the opening of approximately 800 additional cases.

Memorandum to Mr. _____
RE: EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE - 10/29/70

Development of selected contacts of individuals who could be targeted against Soviet intelligence personnel (DESECO Program).

As of 10/1/70, there were 795 Soviet officials and employees assigned to Soviet establishments in the United States. Of this number, 307 are known or suspected Soviet intelligence personnel based on investigative coverage and other sources. Basic to our coverage of these individuals is the development of as many sources and informants as possible from among those persons in regular contact with the Soviets. Of these sources and informants the most important are those who are developed into Double Agents. These are individuals who receive specific intelligence assignments from the Soviets. We are currently operating 71 active Double Agents against the above Soviets. One of the most productive programs for the development of Double Agents is the DESECO Program. Since its inception, this Program has provided continuous flow of sources, informants and Double Agents. We have interviewed 1,120 individuals of which 379 have been placed in contact with Soviets resulting in the development of 84 valuable informants and Double Agents. This points out the fact that this Program is productive. Therefore, in view of these positive results and our need to increase informant coverage of Soviet activities, it is believed necessary to intensify this Program. We intend to do this by requiring every Special Agent in the Washington Field Office and New York Office handling investigations of Soviet personnel to immediately open and develop two completely new DESECO subjects. This will amount to a total of 526 new cases under this valuable Program.

RE: EXECUTIVES CONFERENCE - 10/29/70

With respect to implementation of these programs, Assistant Director [redacted] stressed that there absolutely would be no lessening of existing controls in regard to the investigations of these matters.

Members of the Committee recognize that implementation of these investigations would certainly impose a burden on existing manpower but after carefully analyzing the seriousness of the current situation, it was the considered opinion of all present that we should take necessary steps to institute the above programs at this time.

RECOMMENDATION:

If the Director approves, appropriate instructions will be issued to the field to implement the above programs designed to expand our security investigative coverage of extremist elements.

Advantages of suggestion and annual savings (include basis for estimate) There are two categories of individuals requiring that more-or-less the same type information be submitted, namely Agitator Index and Security Index subjects. FD-397 is submitted every time a subject is placed on the AI and each time a change in residence and/or employment occurs. FD-122 is submitted on SI subjects each time the above changes take place on that individual. Both of these forms show residence and employment, and both contain similar information. Each time a change is made in residence and/or employment, if Secret Service has been notified at any previous time, they should be advised on FD-366. Recommendations and comments of Division Head This suggestion appears to have considerable merit in that it would eliminate some confusion and the possibility of failure to indicate that U.S. Secret Service has been notified. It is favorably recommended.

Advantages of Suggestion and annual savings (Cont'd):

file is not kept current unless FD-366 is submitted to them. The purpose of adding a block showing that Secret Service has been notified is to remind the Agent and/or the Steno to submit this form.

Consider Forms FD-366 and FD-367.
This suggestion will make it possible for one form to be used instead of the two forms now in use (FD-397, FD-122) and will insure that Secret Service is kept abreast of current changes of address and/or employment.

Time saved in preparing proposed new form and filling in only information applicable to each type subject, will make it unnecessary to maintain stocks of two different forms in all offices and other points, thereby cutting storage by 50%, filing by 50%, eliminate 50% of the cost of printing. The new form would also assure that Secret Service was notified if necessary.

Dear Mrs. _____ :

I have received your suggestion that Forms FD-122 and FD-397 be combined into one format. As a matter of possible interest to you, similar ideas have been considered in the past and not adopted since these forms were prepared for specific purposes and it was decided confusion would result from the proposed action.

The interest you displayed in giving me the benefit of your thoughts on this subject is appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: Suggests Form FD-397 (Agitator Index) and Form FD-122 (Security Index) be combined (samples of existing forms and proposed "new" form attached).

edm Domestic Intelligence Division advised when same proposal considered in past that it was more practical to have separate forms for these programs. By having them combined into one format, additional work involved on part of Agents handling.

these matters on part-time basis in determining which items are needed for particular program he is working with at the time. Each form was designed for specific purpose and combining them would result in confusion on part of field. These forms are prepared separately and maintained separately and it would not be feasible to handle as one format. In addition, Domestic Intelligence Division has advised at this time that Voucher-Statistical Section makes a printout from the Security Index information and to add items on form which pertain to another program would cause this section more work. With regard to the addition of a ballot box for indicating Form FD-366 has been submitted, it is felt since the forms are not being combined that the cost for placing this item on both of the present formats is not warranted. Manual of Instructions contains rules regarding use of the FD-366 in three different locations so this should be sufficient for personnel working such cases. Training Division recommends current idea not be approved.

SUGGESTION Re Form FD 154 (VERIFICATION OF INFORMATION ON SECURITY INDEX CARDS) Suggest deletion of "Defense Facility" from places indicated on attached form. Defense Facilities are no longer in existence according to latest changes in Manual of Instructions, Volume III, Section 87, dated 8/13/70. Revised FD 154 dated 4/25/69 still contains the term "Defense Facility".
Current practice or rule (Include manual citation as well as facts) "Defense Facility" is listed for marking in two separate places on FD 154.
Advantages of suggestion and annual savings (include basis for estimate) Deletion of Defense Facility from FD 154 brings form completely up to date and makes form easier to complete by omitting unnecessary items.
Disadvantages of suggestion None

SUBJECT: SUGGESTED REVISION IN THE UTILIZATION OF CHARACTERIZATIONS
USED IN REPORTS AND LETTERHEAD
MEMORANDA. O

SECURITY INVESTIGATION OF INDIVIDUALS

This memorandum suggests that the current procedure for characterizations of organizations in letterhead memoranda and reports in all security classifications, except security of Government employees and applicant investigations, be amended.

Current Procedure

Current procedures for characterization in security-type investigations call for the affixing of appendix pages to letterhead memoranda and reports for each organization mentioned in the communication. In each instance, this increases the size of the document by adding at least one page to each one that mentions an organization. In some instances, as many as five or six appendix pages must be added to a one-page document (an example attached). It can readily be seen that this increases the size of the document but adds little information to the subject of the communication.

Recommended Procedure.

In order to save space, effect a monetary saving and add to the readability of these Bureau documents, the following method of characterizing organizations is suggested: (1) that characterizations in applicant and security of Government employee (SGE) investigations be continued as presently required with appendix pages being added to the end of the communication; (2) that letterhead memoranda and reports in all other security classifications contain a short succinct characterization in the details immediately following the first mention of an organization and the appending of a characterization at the end be eliminated; (3) that on an annual basis field offices furnish current characterizations of organizations of which they are office of origin. (This, in effect, is the long form developmental history of the organization which is currently submitted by the field as a

12-17-70-

Memo to Mr. .
RE: SUGGESTED REVISION IN THE UTILIZATION OF CHARACTERIZATIONS
USED IN REPORTS AND LETTERHEAD MEMORANDA

characterization and will continue to be used in applicant and SGE cases.) In addition, it is recommended these annual submissions contain a short succinct statement which can be used in other security classifications as noted above. This would be a statement giving the character of the organization only. As is currently required, both the long and succinct summaries would be first approved at the Bureau and, thereafter, used throughout the field.

Advantages

One advantage of this procedure is that the space used for storage at the Bureau and other agencies would be considerably reduced due to the fact that long characterizations would be eliminated in security classifications.

The needs of other Government agencies for detailed information relating to the various subversive organizations required under the provisions of Executive Order 10450 would be met.

Reports in other types of security investigations would be more readable in that it would not be necessary to refer to the end of a communication for the description of an organization nor would it be necessary to read a long developmental history of it in order to get an idea of the nature of an organization.

Should an agency need additional characterization beyond the succinct form furnished in the communication, the agency could receive this information upon request by being furnished a copy of the long form, approved on an annual basis and in the possession of the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That this suggestion be referred to the Training Division, Attention: Suggestion Desk, for appropriate action.

2. That the comments and recommendations of the Inspection Division, General Investigative and Special Investigative Divisions be obtained.

KEY BLACK EXTREMIST PROGRAM
RACIAL MATTERS

During your investigations of black extremist organizations and individuals, you have furnished information indicating that certain individuals are extremely active and most vocal in their anti-Government statements and their calls for terrorism and violence. Although the violence potential in all black extremists necessitates continued priority attention by all offices, there are certain individual leaders and activists who can be considered as Key Black Extremists (KBE).

At this time, the Bureau is designating those on the attached list as KBEs. The term KBE does not require that an individual actually hold an official position in an organization but is to include others of equal importance because of their influence as black extremists.

An intensified investigation of each person on the attached list must be immediately instituted with the objective of developing complete and detailed information on their day-to-day activities and future plans. Each office must continually remain alert for additions to the KBE list. Submit all recommendations to make specific subjects KBEs to the Bureau for approval. These cases must be given intensive investigative attention and close supervision by all offices. Maintain a high level of informant coverage on the subjects. All avenues of investigative attention must be explored and necessary recommendations to the Bureau must be made promptly.

The desirable coverage must include, but not be limited to, the following investigation. These investigations must be conducted with initiative and imagination in order that the desired results are achieved. Each of these cases will receive close scrutiny at the Bureau.

(1) All KBEs must be included in Priority I of the Security Index. If not already so included, promptly submit FD-122.

(2) All KBEs must be included in the Black Nationalist Photograph Album (BNPA). Promptly submit photograph and required background on each KBE not presently in the BNPA and when a subject is designated a KBE.

(3) All aspects of the finances of a KBE must be determined. Bank accounts must be monitored. Safe deposit boxes, investments, and hidden assets must be located and available information regarding them must be reported.

(4) Continued consideration must be given by each office to develop means to neutralize the effectiveness of each KBE. Any counterintelligence proposal must be approved by the Bureau prior to implementation.

(5) Obtain suitable handwriting specimens of each KBE to be placed in the National Security File in the Laboratory. When possible, obtain specimens from public records, law enforcement agencies, and similar sources. Send specimens to the Bureau under separate cover letter by registered mail for the attention of the FBI Laboratory. When they are of value as evidence, so state in the transmittal letter and request their return after copies have been made. Specimens should be sufficient to permit future comparisons by the Laboratory.

Airtel to SAC, Albany
KEY BLACK EXTREMIST PROGRAM

(6) Particular efforts should be made to obtain records of and/or reliable witnesses to, inflammatory statements made which may subsequently become subject to criminal proceedings. Promptly record all such information in interview report form.

(7) Where there appears to be a possible violation of a statute within the investigative jurisdiction of the Bureau, the substantive violation character should be included in subsequent communications and the possible violation vigorously investigated in accordance with existing instructions.

(8) Particular attention must be paid to travel by a KBE and every effort made to determine financial arrangements for such travel. If a credit card is used, determine its validity and the amount being charged to that card on a continuing basis. Travel information must be submitted to the Bureau and interested offices by appropriate communication to permit coverage of the KBE. It will be the responsibility of the office of origin to insure that the activities of the KBE are covered by auxiliary offices.

(9) The Federal income tax returns of all KBEs must be checked annually in accordance with existing instructions.

If no investigative summary report has been submitted in each case, such a report must be submitted to the Bureau by 2/15/71. Thereafter, an investigative report should be submitted at least every 90 days. Furthermore, appropriate communications suitable for dissemination should be promptly submitted in the interim to keep the Bureau fully advised of the activities of each KBE. The words (Key Black Extremist) should be included in the character of each communication submitted except those communications (including reports) which are prepared for dissemination.

FROM :

SUBJECT: SECURITY INDEXGENERAL

We forward to the field quarterly an alphabetical list of each office's Security Index in order that the Security Index cards maintained in the field may be checked and reconciled with Bureau records.

To accomplish this a letter is directed to Albany with two copies to each office by name. This is necessary as that portion of the Security Index relating to each office must be enclosed. The letter runs a page and a quarter which requires considerable typing by a stenographer and the reproduction of 124 copies by the Mechanical Section.

It is proposed that in the future this function be accomplished by sending a preprinted routing slip to each field office attaching its Security Index list. The routing slip will contain the instructions that have previously been carried in the letter to all offices which read as follows: "The attached list should be used to reconcile the Security Index in your office with the Security Index at the Seat of Government by checking the names on the list against the Security Index cards. Detailed instructions regarding the handling of this list are contained in Bureau letter to Albany, copies to all offices, captioned as above, dated April 24, 1961."

This latter streamlined operation will save the time it takes the stenographer to type a page and a quarter, the expense of reproducing 124 copies (two to each field office and appropriate ticklers) of the letter, and will expedite the handling of the lists.

ACTION:

If approved, the streamlined method described will be used to have the field check their Security Index against the list maintained at the Bureau.

ADDENDUM OF THE INSPECTION DIVISION

This matter was reviewed during the current inspection and elimination of the letter and reproduction of 124 copies to be replaced by a preprinted routing slip appears to be a worthwhile streamlining of operations. It is felt this recommended practice should receive favorable consideration.

COOPERATION WITH PASSPORT OFFICE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Director has recently commented on the need for selectivity in disseminating to Passport Office, Department of State, in view of recent publicity concerning the data bank maintained by the Passport Office.

With the Director's approval, from 12/8/50 to 11/25/68, we furnished Passport Office, Department of State, on a quarterly basis a list of top functionaries and key figures on the Security Index. Starting 11/25/68 the Director has approved that we furnish Mr. [redacted], Deputy Director and General Counsel, a list on a quarterly basis of individuals included in Priority I of the Security Index. Priority I includes hard-core national and state basic revolutionary organization leaders and leaders of other subversive organizations and unorganized groups who have indicated a propensity for violence or have received special training in sabotage, espionage, or guerrilla warfare. This list, which is prepared by the Automatic Data Processing Unit, is very useful as the Department of State alerts the Bureau to contemplated travel abroad of subversives.

Mr. [redacted] has previously been made to understand that the list is to be handled in the strictest confidence by him at all times in his office safe and is to serve only as an alert list upon which State can take no action but must contact us for reports. It is further stressed that we have been furnishing this data to Passport Office for more than 20 years without incident.

ACTION:

If approved, the Priority I list prepared as of 2/15/71 will be furnished to Mr. [redacted].

SUGGESTION The FD-122 is used to recommend an individual for inclusion on the Security Index and to change personal data of a Security Index subject. It is suggested that the form be amended to include the possibility of recommending removal of a Security Index subject. This could be done through the addition of one extra block, whereby the form could be utilized to recommend removal of the subject from the Security Index. A succinct summary could be added to the form, thus obviating the need for a separate letter to be written. GENERAL
Current practice or rule (Include manual citation as well as facts) The current practice is cited above.
Advantages of suggestion and annual savings (Include basis for estimate) It is felt that there is no way of determining the actual manpower savings, however, it is felt that this would be of great assistance in the standardization of recommendations for the Security Index. It is noted that the FD-397 includes a block relating to the deletion of Agitator Index subjects. This has been a time-saving influence in this regard and it is felt the addition of a similar block on the FD-122 would be useful.
Disadvantages of suggestion There are no disadvantages foreseen should this suggestion be adopted.
<small>(The use by the United States of my suggestion shall not form the basis of a further claim of any nature by me, my heirs, or assigns upon the United States. To: Director, FBI		Date 5-4-71
From: (Suggester's name)		Division of Assignment Identification

SUGGESTION That Form FD-128 which is used by the field to report the change of Office of Origin in a security or racial investigation to the substantive desk at the Bureau and the Identification Division be revised. The purpose of designating one copy of the FD-128 to the attention of the Identification Division is to post the change in the Office of Origin in the fingerprint jacket of the individual on whom a prior security flash notice has been placed. All individuals on whom a security flash is placed in Ident have been assigned an FBI number. Therefore, when an FD-128 is being submitted for the purpose of changing an Office of Origin sufficient information should be set forth thereon so that Ident can easily locate the fingerprint record for the purpose of making this change. Sufficient identifying data should be in the form of an FBI number, other identifying numbers, date and place of birth or fingerprint classification. If a security flash has never previously been placed against the individual in question, no FD-128 should, of course, be submitted to Ident for the purpose of changing the Office of Origin. The changes in Form FD-128 being suggested will materially assist Ident in processing these forms resulting in the prompt posting of the new Office of Origin. (Sample of current and proposed FD-128 attached.)

Current practice or rule (include manual citation as well as facts)
Current Form FD-128 does not require any identifying data of individual to assist Ident in location of fingerprint record.

Advantages of suggestion and annual savings (include basis for estimate)
This suggestion will materially assist Ident in locating fingerprint records which are subject of security flash notices resulting in prompt location and posting of the changed Office of Origin. In addition, the suggested changes requiring specific identifying data to be set forth on the form will allow Ident to make a positive identification against a record rather than pulling numerous tries in an attempt to determine whether the individual set forth on the form relates to a specific identification record. The annual savings involved in the suggestion is unknown.

Security Index Gen.

Disadvantages of suggestion
None known.

COOPERATION WITH PASSPORT OFFICE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Director has recently commented on the need for selectivity in disseminating to Passport Office, Department of State, in view of recent publicity concerning the data bank maintained by the Passport Office.

With the Director's approval, from 12/8/50 to 11/25/68, we furnished Passport Office, Department of State, on a quarterly basis a list of top functionaries and key figures on the Security Index. Starting 11/25/68 the Director has approved that we furnish Mr. [redacted], Deputy Director and General Counsel, a list on a quarterly basis of individuals included in Priority I of the Security Index. Priority I includes hard-core national and state basic revolutionary organization leaders and leaders of other subversive organizations and unorganized groups who have indicated a propensity for violence or have received special training in sabotage, espionage, or guerrilla warfare. This list, which is prepared by the Automatic Data Processing Unit, is very useful as the Department of State alerts the Bureau to contemplated travel abroad of subversives. THE LIST IS NOT IDENTIFIED TO STATE AS A SECURITY INDEX.

Mr. [redacted] has previously been made to understand that the list is to be handled in the strictest confidence by him at all times in his office safe and is to serve only as an alert list upon which State can take no action but must contact us for reports. It is further stressed that we have been furnishing this data to Passport Office for more than 20 years without incident.

ACTION:

If approved, the Priority I list prepared as of 5/15/71 will be furnished to Mr. [redacted].

SECURITY INDEX - GENERAL
SUGGESTION 794-71 SUBMITTED BY
SA , CHICAGO OFFICE

SYNOPSIS

Suggests Form FD-122 which is used to recommend an individual for inclusion on the Security Index and to change personal data of a Security Index subject be amended to include recommending removal of a subject from the index. At present, this is done by writing a letter to the Bureau. A succinct summary could be added to the form or attached to the form thus obviating the need for a separate letter with the time and work involved in its preparation.

Voucher-Statistical Section, Administrative Division, advised that from an operational standpoint, it had no objection to the proposed action. Domestic Intelligence Division agreed with the idea and stated this would provide uniformity in that the same form would be used for all changes involved. Training Division has amended the wording to remove excess verbiage. (Samples are attached with the amended revised FD-122 for approval.)

RECOMMENDATIONS: (1) That the suggestion be adopted and the attached letter be forwarded to the suggester advising him of this fact. His idea has been acknowledged by prior letter.

(2) On approval, this memorandum will serve as the authority for the Domestic Intelligence Division to take appropriate action to place the procedure into effect.

Re: Security Index - General
Suggestion 794-71 Submitted by
SA , Chicago Office

DETAILS

SUGGESTION: The FD-122 is used to recommend an individual for inclusion on the Security Index (SI) and to change personal data of an SI subject. Suggests this form be amended to include the possibility of recommending removal of an SI subject. This could be done through the addition of one extra ballot box, whereby the form could be utilized to recommend removal of the subject from the SI. A succinct summary could be added to the form thus obviating the need for a separate letter to be written.

ADVANTAGES: The suggester feels this would be of great assistance in standardizing recommendations for the SI. He notes that Form FD-397, Recommendation for Addition to, Change in, or Deletion From Agitator Index, included a block relating to the deletion of Agitator Index subjects (it should be noted this form has now been deleted since this index has been abolished). This was a time-saving device in this regard and the suggester feels a similar block on Form FD-122 would be useful (sample of proposed form attached).

OBSERVATIONS: Voucher-Statistical Section, Administrative Division, advised that from an operational standpoint, it had no objection to the proposed amendment to the FD-122.

Domestic Intelligence Division agreed with the idea also. This Division pointed out that at present individuals are recommended for removal from the SI by a letter from the field to the Bureau. Under the proposed procedure, Form FD-122 could be used for deletion with the reasons for such deletion included in a succinct summary attached to the FD-122. Even though the idea may not save a great deal of time on an overall basis, it will add uniformity in that the same form would be used for recommending an individual for the SI, submitting changes in his status, and recommending his deletion from the SI. The use of the form additionally will immediately alert the reader to the recommended action whereas the recommendation may be buried in a letter and not easily discernible.

Since both of the interested divisions recommend approval, Training Division has no objection to this action. After consulting with the Domestic Intelligence Division, it has been decided the format should be revised on the line where this information will be listed to eliminate unnecessary verbiage. An amended format of the FD-122 is attached for approval.

Mr. DeLoach

Monthly we furnish the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, a current list of subjects on Priorities I and II of the Security Index (SI). Listed separately are those U. S. Government employees on Priorities I and II.

Tolson Department
Clifford J. Nelson, Director, Office of Security, Internal Security Division, telephonically requested this date that we include in the list those U. S. Government employees who are on Priority III of the SI. Nelson says it will be used as a check list against which the Internal Security Division will continuously review its files for any Federal violations relative to these subjects. He says such a review is done on a piecemeal basis and he wants to be sure no case is overlooked.

We prepare such a list for our own use and it will require no extra effort on our part.

ACTION:

If approved, Priority III listing of U. S. Government employees on the SI will be included with the lists of subjects on the SI furnished to the Department monthly.

Memorandum

TO

DATE: 6/14/71

FROM

SUBJECT: SECURITY INDEX PROGRAM

"The Washington Post," 6/13/71, contained a lengthy article by William Greider concerning the Security Index (SI) Program. It is fairly accurate and a complete disclosure of the Program. Greider requested information about the SI from Mr. [redacted] on 6/10/71 and was given a "no comment" reply. He indicated he had some information about the SI at that time.

As you know, the SI consists of subjects who are considered for apprehension if the Emergency Detention Program (EDP) is invoked. Our responsibilities in the Program originated with Presidential Directives dating back to 1939. Security investigations of individuals are related to the EDP, which is based on Title II of the Internal Security Act of 1950 (ISA-1950). The EDP involves plans for apprehension and detention of individuals potentially dangerous to the internal security in event of national emergency. Recommendations that individuals be included in the SI are approved by the Special Agents in Charge in each field division and approved by the Bureau. Activities of individuals added to the SI are thoroughly reviewed by the Department which makes the final decision as to whether the individual should be retained on the SI. This article was no doubt triggered by mention of the SI in the Medburg case. Greider quotes unnamed ex-FBI Agents and ex-Departmental attorneys. There is no doubt that many of these are sufficiently knowledgeable to talk about the SI. Annually the Director informs the House Appropriations Committee on the record of the number of people we have in the SI and the number of those tabbed for priority apprehension. Previously the news media has referred to a detention program in connection with legislative attempts to repeal the ISA-1950. However, there has never been such a detailed public disclosure of the SI as a whole.

EX-100 REC-45 JUN 22 1971
This article does contain several inaccuracies:

1. According to the article, [redacted] denied knowing about the SI. This can't be true; by letter, 4/5/67, he gave the Director permission to put the EDP into effect if the President, he, or certain Departmental attorneys were not available to put it into effect.

Memorandum to Mr. C. [REDACTED]
RE: SECURITY INDEX PROGRAM

2. The article relates that the Program is unknown to Congress. The Director informs the House Appropriations Committee relative to it annually, in "off the record" testimony.

3. The article states that the Bureau maintains an Agitator Index. The Agitator Index was established 8/67 to include those who had demonstrated a propensity for fomenting disorder of a racial and/or security nature. After it served our purpose we abolished it in 4/71.

4. The article implies that the SI is never purged. Actually, it is under constant review by the Bureau as well as the Department to eliminate those who do not warrant retention.

5. Greider guesses there are more than 10,000 on the SI. While we do have 12,604 on the SI, no more than 1,300 are considered for priority detention.

The article mentions a Bureau "memorandum," 2/26/71, concerning our investigation of a college student, "Mary Jane L." (last name not spelled out). This memorandum, according to the article, was one of the items stolen from our former Resident Agency in Media, Pennsylvania, and made specific reference to the SI. The article quoted part of the memorandum referring to the SI. The memorandum in question is a letter from the San Francisco Office to the Bureau, 2/26/71, entitled "Changed: [REDACTED], SM-ANA." The quote in the article is accurate and taken from page 2 of the San Francisco letter.

The [REDACTED] letter was previously identified as document stolen from Media. A separate damage assessment write-up was prepared (pages 153-154 of running brief). In attachment to a letter to the Attorney General, 3/25/71, captioned "Burglary of the FBI Resident Agency, Media, Pennsylvania March 8, 1971," we referred to the theft of the [REDACTED] letter and specific reference therein to the SI. We alerted the Attorney General that reference to the SI is "deemed a threat to the internal security, could open the door to inquiries regarding the propriety and purpose of maintaining lists of subversives."

Actually Greider's article is not the first time the [REDACTED] letter and its reference to the SI has been publicized. For example, the 3/25/71 edition of "The New York Times," dealing with the theft of FBI documents from Media, refers to the [REDACTED] letter and stated "The girl (the subject) was not placed on the 'Security Index.'" Similar references to the same letter appeared in the 3/30/71 edition of "The Harvard Crimson," a weekly newspaper of Harvard University, and the 4/10/71 edition of "The New Republic" magazine.

10,000 'Potential Subversives'

By William Greider

Washington Post Staff Writer

Unknown to the general public or even to Congress, the federal government maintains a super-secret listing of so-called potential subversives — a file which would be the basis for federal arrests in the event of war or an "internal security emergency."

It is called the "Security Index," compiled and kept up-to-date by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, supervised by the Justice Department's Internal Security Division.

Though it has been in existence since at least the 1930s, the government does not admit it, even when Congress makes an inquiry. Both the FBI and the Justice Department refuse to concede even that there is something called the "Security Index," much less explain what it is.

The index is a closely held list of the names, addresses, jobs and phone numbers of thousands of Americans considered potentially dangerous — spies or saboteurs, if war or national insurrection developed. How many thousands is not known, but the list has been expanded in recent years as New Left radicals and militant black leaders were added to the rolls, joining the Old Left types from the Communist Party and Trotskyite organizations. A conservative guess based on public figures on subversives is that more than 10,000 people are kept under scrutiny as index subjects.

The little that is known about it comes from two sources — the FBI documents stolen three months ago from the Bureau's Media, Pa., office and interviews with a number of ex-FBI agents and former Justice Department lawyers.

One memorandum in particular, dated Feb. 26, 1971, mentions the index by name — but without revealing its significance. It recounts the investigation of a University of California student named Mary Jane L. whom an FBI informant in Washington, D.C., code-named WF 1577-S, described as "an inveterate Marxist revolutionist . . . far out."

After canvassing informants in Berkeley radical circles, a West Coast agent couldn't find anything to substantiate that, so he concluded his report:

"Due to lack of information and activities of subject, San Francisco is not submitting a summary report at this time. Subject is not being recommended for inclusion on the Security Index as it is felt additional investigation is required (sic) before this evaluation can be reached."

While it is not mentioned in any of the Media documents, several ex-agents said the bureau also maintains something called an "agitator," still another internal listing or perhaps a category within the Security Index.

Several other papers stolen at Media, copied and sent to newspapers conclude with recommendations to "index" several individuals associated with black militant organizations, but the references do not clearly identify the Security Index.

When asked about it, ex-FBI agents expressed some hesitation. The index, they said, is "a taboo subject" or "super-secret" or "super-skittish."

Four of them, however, said the "SI" designates the people who could be picked up and detained as potential saboteurs or spies if war conditions or a national insurrection posed an "internal security" threat. One agent called them the "potential fifth column."

People to Grab

A lawyer who served in the Justice Department's Internal Security Division under a previous administration offered a similar definition: "When I was there, there weren't any bones about it, these were the people they would grab."

Several of the sources said it was their understanding as special agents that the index was authorized by Title II of the 1950 Internal Security Act which has provisions for a presidential declaration of an "internal security emergency" which would permit the Attorney General to detain people without trial "who probably will engage in or conspire with others to engage in acts of espionage or sabotage."

That section of law, called the Emergency Detention Act, has spawned so many rumors of government "concentration camps" among urban black residents that the Justice Department has endorsed proposals to repeal it.

On Broader Authority

The Security Index, however, apparently is justified on broader legal authority and would not necessarily be affected if the 1950 law is erased. According to several sources, the index has been around at least since the 1930s and, indeed, was used as the basis for arresting some enemy aliens on executive warrants at the start of World War II. According to one former agent, the index was broadened in the postwar period based on a series of internal security laws aimed at home-grown members of the Communist Party and associated leftwing groups.

Several sources emphasized their understanding that the index is not an automatic "arrest list," but would be evaluated depending on the nature of the national emergency, before any action would be ordered.

A few years back, government officials publicly scoffed when black leaders began warning about "a pickup list" aimed at Negroes in urban riots. They denied the charge and dismissed it as political paranoia when people like Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael accused the government of planning mass detentions.

The government denies were presumably accurate as far as they went—no detention camps exist; no plans for mass racial arrests. The government did not, however, reveal that the index would permit "selective" arrests of what one ex-agent described as "the key activists."

More recently, the Justice Department passed up another opportunity to disclose the existence of the index. Last year, the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights asked all federal departments, including Justice, to report on all of the "law enforcement-oriented or intelligence-type files" which the agencies maintain on citizens. Justice responded with a long report on its various files—but failed to mention the Security Index.

Each Briefed

Former Attorney General Ramsey Clark, asked about it, said he did not remember anything called the Security Index. Other sources said, however, that each attorney general would be briefed on it when he took office.

Many questions are still unanswered about its scope and limitations, the rules of application. But some details have been learned.

The ex-FBI sources disagree among themselves about one of the most crucial questions—the degree of care applied in putting people on the index and in taking them off.

"I felt the number was great enough," said one former agent, "that it bothered me, because the bureau has a tendency never to purge its records."

Another expressed a similar concern: "It's a lot easier to get someone on than it is to get them off."

Dropped If Harmless

Several others disputed that, however. They felt from their own experience that the bureau is careful in applying the designation and, if an individual proves to be harmless

One former FBI man, who is an admirer of the bureau's leaders, still spoke highly of procedures surrounding the index: "I think they're doing a good job. A lot are eliminated by the first look. A lot of them don't make the Security Index."

There is very little known, of course, about what standards the FBI uses to decide who is a potential subversive and who isn't. The bureau declines to make any of its policy guidelines available for public inspection.

To put someone on the index, a special agent at a field office must fill out a special form, accompanied by an investigative memorandum, detailing his justification. According to the ex-agents, the index has three classifications, I, II, and III, based in descending order on how dangerous the individual is considered.

"Number One is for the real baddies," said one ex-agent who doesn't think much of the whole system.

Screened at Bureau

The agent's recommendations are first screened at Bureau headquarters in Washington.

But the FBI, according to several sources, does not have the final determination as to who gets on the list. The bureau's recommendation is forwarded to the Internal Security Division of the Justice Department where lawyers—some of whom are ex-FBI agents—make the final judgment.

According to one lawyer who used to work there, but who never was privileged to look at the index, the names used to be recorded in a big green book, which was closely guarded, even within the Internal Security Division. Whether they still use a big green book is not known.

Once a person is part of the index, his case is rechecked on a regular basis, perhaps several times a year if he is considered especially dangerous. The agents said this is done both to make certain his address is correct, in the event that a national emergency occurs, and also to revalidate the original justification for including him.

One former agent, who regards the index as a prudent operation of government, described how he "worked" a Black Muslim on the Security Index for six months, then recommended that he be dropped from the listing.

"He had a job, he was a pretty straight guy," the ex-agent said. "He was a Muslim, but that's no crime, so he was dropped."

Several other sources didn't feel that it works that way. They recounted names kept on the index for past political activities or associations which they regarded as pointless. "If the Soviet Union attacked tomorrow," said one ex-agent, "I think there would be an awful lot of Americans embarrassed."

Number Not Disclosed

Like all of the other questions, the FBI declined to reveal how many people are on the index. The estimates made by former agents varied considerably and, as they said, were only guesses.

One possible benchmark can be drawn from the 1950 debate over the Internal Security Act and its never-invoked detention provisions.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported to the bill's sponsor that there were 12,000 "inner hard core" Communist Party members who would be most dangerous in terms of potential sabotage or spying. That number presumably has dwindled somewhat over the years as Old Left leadership died off. On the other hand, the index has received new members in recent years from the New Left activists and black militants.

Civil libertarians would argue that the mere existence of such a list damages constitutional rights since it implies that an individual can be jailed merely on an investigator's suspicion and the circumstances of war, rather than for any personal criminal actions. The 1950 law, for instance, provides only for a hearing before an examiner appointed by the Attorney General—who may withhold evidence if he regards it as sensitive to national security.

Self-Preservation Right

The classic argument in defense of a secret file of dangerous people is that a government has a right to self-preservation. According to this viewpoint, the government has to keep track of such people, either aliens or citizens, and may have to detain them without trial, if the circumstances of war or national emergency are severe enough.

For instance, in the congressional debate over repeal of the 1950 detention act, the law's defenders contend that it provides the machinery for selectivity in detaining dangerous people—thus avoiding the kind of sweeping racial arrests which victimized loyal Japanese-Americans at the start of World War II. The measure, they add, was originally sponsored by Senate liberals such as Paul Douglas, Herbert Lehman, Estes Kefauver, and Hubert Humphrey.

While this rationale may be small comfort to someone whose name is on the list, the President could declare an "internal security emergency" only if Congress declared war. The nation were invaded or an insurrection developed "in aid of a foreign enemy," a never-invoked power.

Security Index - General

Current practice or rule (include manual citation as well as facts)

Current instructions as set out in Manual of Instructions, Section 87 E, page 22 E 2 (8) (b,c,d) reveal that Security Flash Notice (FD-165) (See Page Two)

Advantages of suggestion and annual savings (include basis for estimate)

- (1) Substantive Bureau supervisor could ascertain that Security Flash Notice (FD-165) has been submitted in each case after subject approved for Security Index.
- (2) Substantive Bureau supervisor would have continuing knowledge that Security Flash Notice has been placed with the Identification Division if such is the case.
- (3) When the Office of Origin is changed in Security Index cases the substantive Bureau supervisor would have information readily available to insure that copy of form FD-128 (Utilized to change origin in individual security investigation cases) should be designated (See Page Two)

6-3-71

Employee Suggestion

must be submitted when subject is approved for the Security Index and is sent directly to the Identification Division. If the Identification Division has fingerprints on file, the Security Flash Notice is placed and the FD-165 is retained in the subject's fingerprint jacket. If the Identification Division has no fingerprints on file, the FD-165 is returned to the submitting office with appropriate notation. In either case, no copy of the FD-165 is placed in the subject's substantive case file at the Bureau.

for the Identification Division so that Division's records could be changed to show the new Office of Origin.

At the present time Bureau supervisors handling substantive cases involving Security Index subjects, have no way to determine if Security Flash Notices (FD-165) have been submitted or that they have been placed with the Identification Division without direct contact with that Division.

There is no way to estimate if there would be any monetary savings connected with this suggestion, however, it would insure much closer control by substantive Bureau supervisors that Manual of Instructions' requirements in this area are being closely followed.

IDENTIFICATION DIVISION

SUGGESTION:

Security Index Gen

That Form FD-128 be revised giving sufficient information so that Identification Division can easily locate the fingerprint record. Sufficient identifying data should be in the form of an FBI number, other identifying numbers, date and place of birth, or fingerprint classification.

CURRENT PRACTICE:

Current Form FD-128 does not require any identifying data of an individual to assist Ident in location of fingerprint record.

ADVANTAGES:

This suggestion would assist the Identification Division in prompt location and posting of change of Office of Origin for fingerprint records for subjects of Security or Racial flash notices. When the FBI number is used, the form would by-pass Card Index Section and go to Assembly for the jacket to be pulled and then routed to Posting Section to be handled.

OBSERVATION:

This suggestion has been thoroughly discussed with all personnel concerned. All are in agreement with the committee that this is a good suggestion and should be adopted. Monetary savings will be nominal.

SUGGESTION: The views of the Domestic Intelligence Division were also solicited regarding this idea. This Division agreed that the idea should be approved pointing out that at the present time, the FD-128 is submitted by field to the substantive desk at the SOG and the Identification Division so that the appropriate office of origin can be designated on Bureau records. The form as used to date has no space for designating FBI number, or other identifying data which would enable the Identification Division to easily locate the fingerprint record for purposes of recording the office of origin change. Due to the views of the interested divisions, Training Division has no objection to this action.

RECOMMENDATIONS: (1) That the suggestion be adopted and the attached letter of commendation be forwarded to the suggester. His idea has been acknowledged by prior letter.
